

Oasis Zoom Classes!

Nov/Dec 2020

Please pre-register online using MyOasis and the class number. Upon registering you will receive an email confirmation letter from

Oasis, with the Zoom link. Please join 10 minutes prior to class. Click the link and your computer will open the Zoom App and the class. Remember to click any permission buttons your computer may ask for. If for any reason the link does not work, open the Zoom App and type in the Meeting ID number and Password (found in your email confirmation from Oasis with the link.)

If you need additional assistance registering for the class or with Zoom, email apellman@oasisnet.org or call 317-396-3751.

Post Election – Now What?

Pierre M. Atlas, Ph.D.

Pierre Atlas, Ph.D., Professor of Political Science and the Founding Director of The Richard G. Lugar Franciscan Center of Global Studies at Marian University will lead us in conversation and help us to answer the question “now what?”

Class #5035 ONLINE
Friday Nov 6 1:00–2:00
Fee: $7

Storytelling Arts: The Sunny Side of Virginia St. by Christina Jones

Christina Jones
Join Storytelling Arts in a Zoom performance of “The Sunny Side of Virginia Street: Kitchen table stories and musical memories.” Christina Jones weaves existing family stories with historical facts or competing recollections with the music of Hoosier legend Hoagy Carmichael, played by her mother, Tina Schutte. In her story, Jones will answer the following questions: Was her great-great-grandfather impeached from the Vanderburgh County Council? Did her great-grandfather really know Hoagy Carmichael? AND more.

Class #5044 ONLINE
Sunday Nov 8 4:00–5:00
Fee: $10

Dr. Seuss on the Loose – Writing Picture Books

Steve Tearman

Channel your inner Dr. Seuss and learn to write picture books. We will discuss everything from board books (infant to 3) to Middle Grade chapter books (8-12) and several other age groups in between. This is a fun and interactive class.

Class #5037 ONLINE

Monday Nov 9–Nov 23 1:00–2:30
Fee: $15 3 sessions

Virtual Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill Tour

Shaker Village Docent

Join us for a virtual conversation with Maggie McAdams, Education and Engagement Manager at Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill. Take a virtual tour of the largest National Historic Landmark in Kentucky, and discover how the Shaker’s beliefs influenced and defined their community. Discuss who the Shakers were, what they believed, and how they successfully maintained an intentional communal society for over a century!

Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill is a landmark destination that shares 3,000 acres of discovery in the spirit of the Kentucky Shakers.

Class #5039 ONLINE

Wednesday Nov 11 1:00–2:00
Fee: $10

Mystery’s Mysterious (and Oddball) Critters

Irma Baker

When it comes to crime solving, fictional crime solvers often need a little help and sometimes it comes from a possibly paranormal parrot, several pot-bellied pigs, a duck, a bunny, a raccoon or a hamster, cats that can walk through walls and become invisible, a llama that protects its zookeeper, dogs that share their thoughts and special skills, and other critters who find themselves at the center of the action. Handouts will be emailed to registered attendees before the class.

Class #5038 ONLINE

Thursday Nov 12 1:00–2:30
Fee: $7

Storytelling Arts: How They Linger – Stories of People by Donald Davis

Donald Davis

Join Storytelling Arts for a ZOOM performance “How They Linger – Stories of People Who Cannot Be Forgotten,” told by audience-favorite

Donald Davis. He’s one of only two storytellers to be featured every year at the National Storytelling Festival in Jonesborough, Tennessee.

Donald Davis grew up in the mountains of Southern Appalachia, in a world rich with stories. As a young man, he gravitated toward stories about his own family and places of origin. As he retold stories, he gradually began adding new ones. His humor has captured the imagination of thousands of audience members. Smithsonian Magazine said Davis is “a master of timing” and has audiences “hanging on his every word.” The New York Times said, “His stories often left listeners limp with laughter at the same time they struggled with a lump in the throat.”

Class #5045 ONLINE

Saturday Nov 14 7:00–8:30
Fee: $15

Shaker Village Pieces of Pleasant Hill: Objects + Stories

Shaker Village Docent

Join us as we examine the importance of artifacts, and the ways in which we can use them to understand more about life in this communal society. Do you know how to read an artifact? What can objects tell us about the past and the people who used them? Every object has a story to tell, and by uncovering these stories, we can piece together the daily lives of individuals here at Pleasant Hill.

Presented by Maggie McAdams, Education and Engagement Manager at Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill.

Class #5040 ONLINE

Wednesday Nov 18 1:00–2:00
Fee: $10

Aging Mastery Book Club

Curtis McManus

This class will inspire you to take steps toward positive aging across six dimensions and help you build your own ‘playbook’ for aging well. Each dimension has specific guideposts, or actions, that you are encouraged to incorporate into your daily life. AMP encourages aging mastery- developing sustainable behaviors across many dimensions that lead to improved health, stronger economic security, enhanced well-being, and increased societal participation.

Class #5042 ONLINE

Tuesday & Wednesday Dec 1–15
10:00–11:30
Free 5 sessions

Walrus & Other Pinnipeds

Tolly Foster

Join the Zoo to explore the world of walrus and other pinnipeds. In this program you will learn about pinnipeds and how to tell some of the species apart. Using videos, artifacts and slides participants will discover some of their adaptations and learn more about who currently lives at the Indianapolis Zoo.

Class #5043 ONLINE

Holiday Stress in 2020: Manage the Menace!

Kate Kunk

No matter how much we look forward to the holidays (or not!), most of us have encountered the increased stress that tends to accompany them from year to year—but now (thanks to the coronavirus), stress levels are already at an all-time high and have been there for awhile! With so much stress even before we get to the season, how can we best prepare ourselves for getting the most out of our holiday observances? Join us as we discuss the difference between good and bad stress, gain some practical tips to consistently, effectively manage the kind of stress that hurts us — and shift our focus to all of the wonderful reasons we celebrate these special times in the first place.
